MARRIAGES.
Tagged, rugged little urchins, playing marbles in the street.
Often times I pause to watch you as you eagerly compete
For the white and colored "commies" trampled in the dust and snow.
And I think about the playmates of the days of long ago.
I remember how my marbles, piled in gay, fantastic heaps,
Sometimes vanished slowly, surely to the dizzy whirl of "keeps,"
And I recollect the rapture that was mine when lucky play
Sent me from the game a winner—not so often, by the way.

One there was who used to capture all the agates in my sack.
Then by dint of careless playing he would always give them back.
Dear old chum, your boyish triumphs marked the end of your success;
As you grew, capricious Fortune e'er denied you her caress.
With a heart too big for scheming and a mind too high for greed,
You departed for a playground where I know you will succeed.
As I watch the noisy youngsters something seems to dim my sight,
And I see you as I saw you when the Reaper won the fight.

Tagged, rugged little urchins, playing marbles in the street,
I am thinking of the journey that awaits your busy feet.
Carefully I scan the features of the winners in the strife,
And I think about the trials in the marble game of life.
You will not for aye be pitted 'gainst the rivals of today.
Frolic for the game is easy—true enough for rougher play.
May the vain regret that smites you when you lose your colored toys
Be the worst that e'er assails you. God be with you, little boys.
—Milwaukee Sentinel.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."
Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.
We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

RELIGIOUS DISTURBERS

Lack of Sufficient Evidence to Convict Them Yesterday

Squire Grant had a case of disturbing religious worship in his Court yesterday in which there was not a sufficient amount of evidence to convict the accused, yet there was enough to show there had been a disturbing element present on the Sunday evening complained of as well as other times.

The Squire's Courts have had several cases of similar character here of late where young men were arraigned, charged with the grave offense of annoying and disturbing the preacher and his congregation, and have been lucky enough to escape punishment.

This last case came from Rev. Roseberry's Church in the East End. There was enough brought out to show that there was a lack of respect and decorum, by a few young people, who attended his Church.

Disturbing worship of any kind is a grave offense, and should be condemned by all good citizens, and when found guilty by the Court should receive the full limit of the law.

Fire completely destroyed one of the Portsmouth Brewing Company's buildings yesterday. The loss is $30,000; insurance, $16,000.

DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

Payable to Collector at end of Month.

Good morning! Have you been out to the Government Morgue?

When Maysville's Public Building is finished, some enterprising citizen may start a 'bus line between the Banks and the Postoffice.

The LEDGER begs that Congressman KEMOE will register an 18-karat "kick" against locating Maysville's Public Building out of town.

If "distance lends enchantment to the view," Maysville's Public Morgue will be the most enchanting object within a mile of the city's business district.

It is fortunate that the Maysville Public Building has been located on the Streetcar Line, anyhow. Strangers will be able to ride out into the country to see it.

The "expansion" plank in the Democratic platform is of itself enough to defeat that ticket. The American people won't stand for a party that advances backwards.

The Honorable Secretary of the Treasury is most respectfully requested to send a Special Agent to Maysville to view the rural site selected for the proposed Public Building.

When it was inevitable that Judge PARKER would be nominated, Mr. BRYAN left the Convention Hall to escape hearing the announcement. He isn't the only man who dislikes to hear of his downfall.

The design for the proposed Government Building was mistaken by one citizen as a design for a Morgue.

If Maysville's Public Building is erected on the site selected by Mr. WINDOM,—after a residence of some twelve hours in the city,—the Postmaster General should be petitioned to establish a Rural Route between the Business Houses and the Postoffice.

Political Pickings

IS IT PROVIDENCE?

Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

On the streets of Covington William Goebel, after provoking a quarrel, shot and killed John Sanford. The killing was not justifiable, but Goebel escaped punishment. He forced his nomination for Governor, depriving other Democrats of their rights, but he was defeated at the polls. He then instituted a contest before a partisan Legislature and during that contest was assassinated by some one individual. In order to make political capital, Governor Taylor, Caleb Powers, James Howard and others who are innocent, were indicted on perjured testimony. In the trials that followed T. C. Campbell, an imported lawyer, was relentless in his prosecution, which amounted to persecution. Later Campbell was on a cruise in the Atlantic Ocean, and was shipwrecked on an island, where he was maltreated by pirates, robbed of his clothing and suffered with cold and hunger. He died from the effects of the exposure the evening that he was brought to New York.

"If it had not been for my decisions there would not be a Democratic state official at Frankfort." The trials of those indicted were partisan trials. Partisan jurors rendered the verdicts in Judge Cantrill's Court. Innocent men are under conviction. Strange things occur.

The splendid residence of Judge Cantrill at Georgetown accidentally caught fire and was burned, and now he is a paralytic on a bed of suffering.

We don't know about the ways of Providence. They are mysterious and past finding out. God forbid that any of us should be vindictive or cruel. No true hearted man or woman will rejoice in the suffering of a human being. Good men meet with misfortune. Pure motives may have prompted William Goebel to kill John Sanford. We don't know. A sense of duty may have made T. C. Campbell do what he did. We don't know. A high sense of honor may have been the moving power in all that Judge Cantrill has done. We don't know.

Another lesson might be drawn from the witness and from some of the jurors. We are not overly religious, nor are we superstitious, but in one way and another things occur that causes us to believe that there is a power above that rules our destinies.

Paris Green That Kills.

Many imagine that all Paris Green is of equal potency. This is not the case. Analysis of samples from various makers shows that some have more than twice the strength of others. You have perhaps observed evidence of this in the failure of an application of Paris Green to your tobacco plants to rid them of worms as it should. We guarantee the strength and effectiveness of the Paris Green we sell. The manufacturers have a reputation for the high and uniform excellence of their product. There's economy in using this Paris Green; it goes further and always does the work.

If authentic, this indicates that the retreat of General Kuropatkin from Liao Yang has been cut off. Although the Russians struggled valiantly, they were compelled to retreat before the determined assaults of the Japanese, and left 350 dead upon the field. The Japanese showed great bravery. The battle ended in a complete rout of the Russians. The loss by the Japanese is unknown."

Ackley, Ia., has the champion egg eater of the United States. George Richardson, a stock buyer of that city, has an appetite for hen fruit that is not satisfied by the usual allotment as he demonstrated when he ate sixty-one in twenty minutes in the presence of witnesses. Richardson thinks nothing of eating two dozen at one sitting, and experiences no inconvenience from the unusual number. About a week ago he ate fifty eggs on a bet of $5, and offered to bet a dollar he could eat two dozen more.

Experts of corn from the United States during the first nine months of the present fiscal year were 49,598,599 bushels, against 52,656,018 bushels for the same period a year ago.

The Grand Jury will reconvene at Bedford, Ind., July 11th to continue the investigation of the Schaefer murder. The belief now is that the woman was murdered because she had knowledge of a secret that would incriminate a person of prominence if divulged.

A CONTINUAL STRAIN.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. Sold by Henry W. Ray, Post-office Druggist.

PLENTY OF IT

Lots More Proof Like This, and It Is All From Maysville People

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it." If any city or town in the Union has sufficient proof on the following subject it is Maysville. Genuine merit is finding its reward in the hearty indorsement of local citizens. When people right here at home, friends and neighbors of our readers, give a statement like the following for publication it is proof convincing for the most skeptical. Read this testimony:

Mr. A. W. McClanahan of 119 West Second street says: "The use in my case fully demonstrated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered more or less from kidney trouble for twenty years, steadily becoming more persistent as time passed on. My attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. The treatment so greatly benefited me that my only regret is that I did not know of this valuable remedy years ago, for had such been the case I would have been saved much suffering."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
